1. The Communist Information Bureau for the Middle East (Informburo) has prepared a directive to all Communists in the Middle East, ordering them as follows:
  - a. To observe all Communists who appear to be inclining toward Titoism or who already have contacted Titoists.
  - b. To observe Tito agents sent to the Arab countries.
  - c. To observe all American, British, and French activities.
  - d. To collect all items of information which could be used in furthering the communist cause.
2. The directive further directs that all information obtained on the above subjects be passed upward through the Party hierarchy to the Informburo.
